Revelwood Named Winner of the Adaptive Insights Partner Rising Star of the Year Award at Adaptive Insights 2019 Worldwide Partner Rally

PARSIPPANY, NJ–February 14, 2019–Revelwood today announced that it was awarded the Adaptive Insights Partner Rising Star of the Year award by Adaptive Insights, a Workday company. The award ceremony was held in Pleasanton, CA during Adaptive Insights' Americas Partner Rally in February, which was the first of three Worldwide Partner Rally events. The annual awards recognize outstanding achievement by Adaptive Insights partners in a variety of categories.

Revelwood's commitment to the Adaptive Insights partnership and Business Planning Cloud have given the company the distinction as a strategic partner, resulting in determination, passion, thought leadership and overall knowledge and success in the space.

"We're very proud to have received the Adaptive Insights Partner Rising Star of the Year award for 2019. It reflects our deep commitment to our partnership with Adaptive Insights and the value we can offer their customers and prospects," said Ken Wolf, CEO, Revelwood. "Our thought leadership and deep understanding of planning, coupled with our experience implementing large-scale FP&A projects, puts us in an excellent position to partner with the Adaptive Insights team."

Revelwood has invested significantly in its partnership with Adaptive Insights, leveraging its more than 20 years of experience designing, building and implementing FP&A solutions. Additionally, Revelwood has presented at several Adaptive Insights events, sharing how the Office of Finance can be a value-add to the overall organization through people, process, and technology. The most successful FP&A initiatives factor in overall business goals and long-term vision – not just the selection and implementation of technology.

The Adaptive Insights Worldwide Partner Rally events, held in Pleasanton, CA, Sydney, and London, provide a chance for partners from around the globe to learn and share strategies and best practices, and to continue to accelerate business opportunities with Adaptive Insights solutions. Over 200 partner attendees participated in the seventh annual Adaptive Insights Worldwide Partner Rally.

"Organizations of all sizes, across all industries continue to adopt Adaptive Insights Business Planning Cloud, realizing the value of collaborative, company-wide planning," said Mel Zeledon, vice president of worldwide channels and alliances, at Adaptive Insights. "Our network of channel partners extends that value, providing domain expertise and support across the globe. Together, we're enabling our joint customers to engage in an active planning process that provides them business agility in a fast-moving world. We are honored to recognize Revelwood with the Adaptive Insights Partner Rising Star of the Year award and look forward to continuing our successful partnership in 2019."

Revelwood is part of Adaptive Insights' leading network of more than 200 worldwide partner organizations serving a customer base of more than 4,000 customers in 50 countries.
