“Our team at Revelwood delivers world-class planning solutions based on Workday Adaptive Planning to transform the Office of Finance,” said Ken Wolf, CEO, Revelwood. “This recognition from Workday signifies not just our successful partnership with them, but also the achievements of our clients relying on Workday Adaptive Planning.”

This award recognizes the Workday Adaptive Planning Partner that drove the highest amount of Annual Contract Value (ACV) for net-new logos and add-ons with Workday Adaptive Planning for the fiscal year 2023. Revelwood is part of the Workday Adaptive Planning Partner ecosystem, delivering deployment services to a customer base of more than 6,500 customers.

The Revelwood team leverages its nearly 30 years of experience working with the Office of Finance and applies best practices to help organizations gain the insights they need to make strategic, meaningful business decisions. The company prides itself on its depth of knowledge and ability to speak business first.

“We have a flourishing and dedicated team for our Workday Adaptive Planning practice,” said Dave Miersch, practice leader, Workday Adaptive Planning practice, Revelwood. “We go far beyond the traditional vendor-client relationship. Our clients view us as experts in not just the Office of Finance, but also Workday Adaptive Planning. Our clients consider us true strategic partners – and in some cases, friends.”

Global Workday Adaptive Planning Practice

Revelwood recently expanded its Workday Adaptive Planning practice to Europe. Industry veteran Jonathan Dunn is leading the effort, with operations in the UK and Ireland. This global expansion builds on the Revelwood’s success in North America.

Revelwood works with the best software vendors in the marketplace to deliver solutions for the Office of Finance that help optimize financial performance and results. The company has partnered with IBM for decades and joined the Workday Adaptive Planning partner program in 2018. Most recently, Revelwood has partnered with BlackLine and Incorta.

Revelwood has earned awards from BlackLine and IBM, in addition to the recognition received from Workday.
